Project Title: Moomins Website

Page Brief

This website will have multiple pages with the navigation bar located at the top for easy access. The site will move through context and history, before going into a deep dive into the specific influences behind the creation of the Moomins, as well as the legacy that this has left behind. This website site will probably lean very naturally into visuals, featuring illustrations, book covers, and animation stills.

Home Page/Introduction

This page will cover the context of the publication of the Moomin books, as well as an overview of the writer and illustrator, Tove Jansson. It will contain buttons linking to the other pages, with a brief description for each.

Characters & Interpretation

List the characters, including Moomintroll, Moominpappa, Moominmamma, Little My, Sniff, Snork Maiden, and Snufkin, along with corresponding illustrations and descriptions. Explain interpretations of the inspiration behind the characters, particularly those inspired by real people.

Publications

This page will list the books and comic strips with their titles, publication dates, and brief descriptions.

TV Series and Films

List the series and films based on the Moomins in chronological order, with information about the title, year, and country of origin.
